

Hereinafter referred to as SIBERIAN HEALTH
Address: SIBERIAN HEALTH s.r.o., Blanická 590/3, 120 00 Prague 2

Registered at the Trade Register kept at the Municipal Court in Prague, Section C, File No. 208251	taxpayer number
	Number in register of legal entities

[illegible]

E-mail: paha@sibvaleo.com
Website: www.siberianhealth.com

Status change from a Privileged Client to a Consultant saving individual number.

Mr.

Mrs./Ms.

Spouses

Town/city:

Town/city:

This form should be filled in only if both spouses are intended to register on one individual number.

Данные супруги/супруга:

Town/city:

Town/city:

This form should be filled in only if a Consultant is an entrepreneur and is willing to get comission on his/her bank account.

Yes

No

No

A Consultant shall bear expenses, which are necessary for his/her business activities. A Consultant shall be liable for the statutory compliance of his/her residence country as well as of the countries of his/her business activities, in particular completeness and timeliness of tax payments and fees.

Signature: _____

000000 | 000000

Sponsor's data:

The individual number:

Last name, First name:

Citizenship:

Contact number:

e-mail:

The Agreement shall be deemed to have been executed after registration of completely filled and assigned Agreement by Siberian Health. Submitted Agreement is reviewing within 3 work days after its receipt by Siberian Health and can be accepted or rejected, particularly with no reason given.

For the purpose of collaboration with the Siberian Health, I give my consent to processing of my personal information, i.e. to any manipulations by means of automated services or without them (including collection, recording, organization, systematization, accumulation, storage, maintenance, revision (updates, changes), extraction, use, consulting, transferring, depersonalization, blocking, removing, deleting).

I give my consent to the transfer of personal information provided in this application to the companies selling Siberian Health products including those located in other countries for analysis and optimization of the Siberian Health sales activities.

According to the Directive 95/46/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council I'm informed to be entitled to request updating or deleting my personal data, opposing against its further processing. To exercise this right you should apply to Siberian Health.

I give my consent to receive information from the Siberian Health (including advertisement) by means of telecommunication such as e-mail, telephone, fax, mobile phone and Internet.

I do not have another individual number in Siberian Health.

Signature: _____

Signature (wife/husband): _____

Agreement is registered in Siberian health «___» _____ 20__.

Contract terms which are indivisible part of a Consultant's Registration Agreement

1. Parties cooperation of the present Agreement aims at the promoting, popularising, demand increasing of the products with the Siberian Health trademark, and volume increasing of its sales within the country of Consultant's residence.

2. The cooperation with Siberian Health guarantees Consultant the following:

- sale of the proper quality products;
- an opportunity to participate in informational and training events of Siberian Health;
- an opportunity to obtain information about the Siberian Health products, current promotions, bonuses, Compensation Plan, etc.
- a timely processing of the trade and financial transactions, including the recording of purchases made by a Consultant;
- a timely bonuses charge to a Consultant;
- a timely commissions payment to a Consultant with the status of an individual entrepreneur.

3. A Siberian Health Consultant can:

- purchase Siberian Health products, and receive bonuses upon purchasing the products;
- recommend Siberian Health products to others and receive bonuses for their purchases;
- inform other people about assortment, methods and results of Company products implementation;
- recommend other people to become a Privileged Client or a Consultant of Siberian Health.

4. A Siberian Health Consultant with the status of an entrepreneur has additional opportunities to create sales structure, acquiring commission in accordance with the Compensation Plan of Siberian Health.

5. The terms of Consultant's cooperation with Siberian Health:

- Upon signing this Agreement, a Consultant confirms that he/she is legally capable to conclude this Agreement.

- a Consultant undertakes to follow Standards and Statement of Policies and Procedures of Siberian Health - the Ethics Code and Rules of cooperation with Siberian Health.

- upon the registration of signed Agreement with Siberian Health, a Consultant becomes an independent member of Siberian Health.

- a Consultant is not considered as an employee of Siberian Health as well as its agent, principal, commission agent, legal, or sales representative.

- a Siberian Health Consultant in the Rank of Senior Consultant, ought to be registered as an entrepreneur in accordance with the legislation of the country, where he/she runs entrepreneurial activity.

- a Consultant bears full responsibility for legislation observation (laws and regulations) within the countries of his/her residence and where he/she conducts business, including the timeliness and completeness of taxes paid, legal entrepreneurial activity operating

- a Consultant is entitled to inform other people about Siberian Health products and business, using printed products of Siberian Health, which are marked as printed matter designed in particular for the country where a Consultant conducts its business.

- a Consultant is not allowed to use trademarks, trade names, logos, brand names, emblems and other intellectual property of Siberian Health without the prior written consent of the Company.

- Siberian Health does not pay bonuses and commissions to a Consultant only for the fact of concluding an Agreement with a person enrolled under him/her recommendation, if such a person will not purchase the Company's products, recommend it to other people, bring in them to the cooperation with the Company.

- a Consultant is entitled to inform other people about Siberian Health products and business, using printed products of Siberian Health, which are marked as printed matter designed in particular for the country where a Consultant conducts its business.

- a Consultant is not allowed to use trademarks, trade names, logos, brand names, emblems and other intellectual property of Siberian Health without the prior written consent of the Company.

- Siberian Health does not pay bonuses and commissions to a Consultant only for the fact of concluding an Agreement with a person enrolled under him/her recommendation, if such a person will not purchase the Company's products, recommend it to other people, bring in them to the cooperation with the Company.

To get bonuses and commissions, it is necessary that people, joined the Company under Consultant's recommendation, enter into an Agreement with Siberian Health, purchase the Siberian Health products, and recommend it to other people. Siberian Health does not provide bonuses and does not pay the commissions to a Consultant for provided personal data of other people (name, phone number, home address, e-mail address).

- A Consultant is not allowed to make claims, statements regarding the therapeutic, healing properties of the Siberian Health products and the received income from the cooperation with Siberian Health, that are not given by the printed Siberian Health products, which are marked as printed matter intended for the country of a Consultant's business.

- a Consultant bears full liability to third parties and the bodies of state authority and administration for the resale of Siberian Health products, for his/her personal claims, statements regarding the therapeutic, healing properties of Siberian Health products and concerning received income from the cooperation with the Siberian Health, not given in documents, materials, produced and distributed by Siberian Health.

If a Consultant will purchase low-quality Siberian Health products and sells it to another person, he/she has the right to return it to Siberian Health within the expiration period of the products, and receive in return the same products of a proper quality. A Consultant is obliged to return a Client the cost of sales of low-quality products.

6. Within the cooperation with Siberian Health, a Consultant is not obliged to:

6.1. Purchase any particular amount of Siberian Health products. However, the volume of products, personally purchased by a Consultant and/or by persons he/she brought in, impacts his/her Rank in Siberian Health.

6.2. Maintain certain commodity stock.

6.3. Purchase any "package" for entering the business, except the Registration package of Siberian Health.

6.4. Purchase Literature, audio, video and multimedia products of Siberian Health or other materials, as well as to participate in any programmes and events of Siberian Health.

6.5. Purchase tickets and/or attend, participate in meetings, seminars, business meetings or other events of Siberian Health.

6.6. Bring in a certain number of people for the cooperation with Siberian Health.

7. Siberian Health reserves the right to change products prices, its points content, set discounts for products, to carry out promotions, to change the products assortment and the conditions of its payment. The Company informs a Consultant about above mentioned changes and current promotions of Siberian Health in accordance with the procedure, specified in clause 14 of the Agreement. Also this information can be found in the Company Servicing Centres. Siberian Health does not compensate Consultants the losses incurred by the introduction of above-mentioned changes, as well as the products lack within the Company Representative offices and the e-shop.

8. Present Agreement is drawn up in accordance with the Czech Republic legislation.

9. Consultant's Signature in the present Agreement verifies integrity of specified personal data. In the case of detection of Consultant's false or falsified data by Siberian Health, the Company has the right to terminate present Agreement unilaterally.

10. Consultant's Signature in the present Agreement means its consent to receive informational and advertising letters from Siberian Health to the specified e-mail address.

11. Upon signing present Agreement, a Consultant agrees to specify his/her personal data, to place his/her photo in advertising and informational publications of Siberian Health and in the Company website.

12. Consultant's Signature in the present Agreement indicates that he/she is familiarized with the Standards and Statement of Policies and Procedures of Siberian Health content (Ethics Code, Rules of cooperation with Siberian Health) and undertakes to follow these documents in his/her activity.

13. A Consultant is aware that upon any violation of present Agreement, Standards and Statement of Policies and Procedure of Siberian Health (Ethics Code, Rules of cooperation with Siberian Health), Siberian Health may unilaterally terminate present Agreement.

14. Siberian Health has the right to change unilaterally Standards and Statement of Policies and Procedure of Siberian Health (Ethics Code, the Rules of cooperation with the Siberian Health), Compensation Plan and other documents of Siberian Health. Siberian Health publishes information concerning above-mentioned changes in its printed publications, at the website and notifies a Consultant by sending informational letters to e-mail address, specified by a Consultant within the registration in Siberian Health.

All changes enter into force upon the date specified in the information, published in the printed source, at the website and in the informational letter sent to a Consultant. If a Consultant changed his/her e-mail address, he/she ought to change his/her e-mail address for messages multicast in BackOffice, in the section "My Profile". Otherwise informational letters sent by Siberian Health to the initial e-mail address of a Consultant will be considered as sent to the proper address, and a Consultant shall be deemed aware of any changes.

15. Present Agreement enters into force upon the date of its registration by Siberian Health and is valid until its cancellation, termination by mutual agreement or at the initiative of one party. The reasons, procedure and the consequences of cancellation, termination of Agreement are specified in the Rules of cooperation with Siberian Health.

16. Present Agreement is drawn up in two copies, which have equal legal force, one copy for each party.

A Consultant and Siberian Health are aware that present Agreement is aimed at building the long-term relations and mutually beneficial cooperation. Observation of the Company Standards and Statement of Policies and Procedures and the Agreement terms means the realisation of all possibilities provided by Siberian Health!

The Agreement copy was received by: _____

(full name, signature, date)